

Energy Technologies Limited

Remuneration Policy

The company has a policy of remunerating officers and employees based on both company and personal performance. Each financial year targets shall be set covering both company and personal performance that will dictate the amount and level of remuneration paid out. Personal remuneration shall be strongly correlated to company profitability.